

1. Verify that search button remains disabled until user types query string in the search input field
2. verify once user enters search query in input field and click "search" button, documents related to search query are presented.
3. verify that if user enters invalid search query and click "search" button, no documents are returned.
4. verify that when user enters same query in different cases, same documents are filtered and presented
5. verify that searched documents contain all the words from query, they may be in order maybe though.
6. verify that search result is only filtered on words of query.
7. verify that if user tries to search a query within double quotes, resultant documents should be containing exact phrase.
8. verify that special characters are ignored in search result.
9. verify that is resultant documents are presented with pagination and user could navigate to various pages.
10. verify that user can sort the results if sorting feature is available
11. verify that resultant documents highlight matched query words.